hereby constitutes and appoints Joseph S Catania CHB dba CCB International (Tel 866 746 4222 / JFK@CCBInternational.com)(Grantee) who may exercise its powers herein by its licensed officers and designated employees as a true and lawful agent and attorney of the grantor named above for and in the name, place, and stead of said grantor from this date and in all Customs districts , and in no other name, to make, endorse, sign, declare, or swear to any entry, withdrawal, declaration, certificate, bill of lading, carnet, or other document required by law or regulation in connection with the importation, transportation, or exportation of any merchandise shipped or consigned by or to said grantor to perform any act or condition which may be required by law or regulation in connection with such merchandise to receive any merchandise deliverable to said grantor; To make endorsements on bills of lading conferring authority to transfer title, make entry or collect drawback, to file all electronic data, and to make, sign, declare, or swear to any statement, supplemental statement, schedule, supplemental schedule, certificate of delivery, certificate of manufacture, certificate of manufacture and delivery, abstract of manufacturing records, declaration of proprietor on drawback entry, declaration of exporter on drawback entry, or any other affidavit or document which may be required by law or regulation for drawback purposes, regardless of whether such bill of lading, sworn statement, schedule, certificate, abstract declaration, or other affidavit or document is intended for filing in any Customs; To sign, seal, and deliver for and as the act of said grantor any bond required by law or regulation in connection with the entry of withdrawal of imported merchandise exported with or without benefit of drawback, or in connection with the entry, clearance, lading, unloading, or navigation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned or operated by said grantor, and any and all bonds which may be voluntarily given and accepted under applicable laws and regulations, consignee's and owner's declarations provided for in section 485 Tariff Act of 1930 as amended, or affidavits in connection with the entry of merchandise; to sign and swear to any document and to perform any act that may be necessary or required by law or regulation in connection with the entering, clearing, lading, unloading, or operation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned or operated by said grantor;

To authorize other Customs brokers to act as grantor's agent; to receive; endorse and collect checks issued for Customs duty refunds in grantor's name drawn on the Treasurer of the United States; if the grantor is a nonresident of the United States, to accept service of process on behalf of the grantor; and generally to transact at the customhouses in any district any and all Custom business, including making, signing, and filing of protests under section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930, in which said grantor is or may be concerned or interested and which may properly be transacted or performed by an agent and attorney, giving to said agent and attorney full power and authority to do anything whatever ratifying and confirming all that the said agent and attorney shall lawfully do by virtue of these presents, and to hold harmless for any untimely and/or inaccurate filings; the foregoing power of attorney to remain in full force and effect until notice of revocation in writing is duly given to and received by a District Director of Customs. If the grantor is a limited liability company, the signatory certifies that he/she has full authority to execute this power on behalf of the grantor. If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for Customs charges (duties, taxes, or other debts owed Customs)in the event the charges are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to "U.S. Customs Service" which shall be delivered to Customs by the broker.

Grantor waives the confidentiality requirements of Sections 111.24 of the Customs Regulations and the requirement in Section 111.36 of the Customs Regulations that the Customs Broker transmit a copy of its bill for services directly to the importer, and authorizes the Customs Broker to transmit its bill for services and copies of the Customs Entry Documents and all other related documents (CBP 7501 or other document used to make entry, commercial invoices, etc) through Grantor's forwarder. No part of any agreement between forwarder/agent and the Customs Broker forbids or prevents direct communication between importer or other party in interest and the Customs Broker.
